About TB

Tsohang Batjha is a project of the Jozi Book Fair. It aims to build reading and writing culture among teens from ages of 13 – 18 years. The programme raises awareness about a number of issues facing youth in societies and remove the youth from the streets, creating responsible youth who will lead South Africa in the future. Participate in book clubs, write for the newsletter, write your own stories and improvements in all your subjects

About JBF

The 10th Jozi Book Fair will take place from 30 August – 2 September 2018. The schools programme will be from 30 August – 31 August. The Fair will be at Mary Fitzgerald Square, Newtown. We encourage schools to register to attend. The Jozi Book Fair creates readers and writers in all languages among people of all ages. The Fair is FREE.
